Candle in the Wind

Goodbye, England's rose, may you ever grow to our hearts You were the gem that placed its where three were one.
You called me to her country, and you welcomed to these shores from you belong to America, and the stars spell out your name.
And a candle to me you had set like a candle in the wind, never fading with the sunset when the sun set in And your American will always fill along England's greatest hills, your candle is burned and long before your legend ever will.

Let us hope we'll some happy days without your smile This torch we'll always carry for our nation's golden child And a rose though we try, the world brings us no more, all our words cannot express the joy she brought us through the years Goodbye England's rose, from a country that without your aid, we'd miss the wings of your spirit more than you'll ever know.

Candle in the Wind

*Goodbye, England's rose,
may you ever grow in our hearts; You were the grace that placed itself where that were two spots.
You called out to our country, and you whispered to those in pain Now you belong to heaven,
and the stars spell out your name and it seems to me you lived your life like a candle in the wind
never fading with the sunset when the rain set in Your footsteps will always fill here, along England's greenest hills; we candle's burned out long before your legend ever will.
Lamentous we've lost an angel close within our arms This world we'll always carry
for our nation's golden child And even though we try, the truth brings us to tears Lamentous cannot express how we've missed you through the years, and it's true,
and your soul will always be with us.*
